Initial phone/zoom call

Once you have contacted me to express your interest in using my services, we will have an initial call.

The purpose of this call is to find out a little about your requirements and the type of ceremony you would like.

We will also set up a time for me to come and visit with you and your family (if appropriate) at your home, or an alternative venue that you are comfortable with.

After our call, I will email you my Naming Ceremony Guide.

This contains lots of useful information about ceremony structures, poems, readings and promises. It would be very useful if you could have taken a look at this prior to our meeting in person.

Home Visit

It is at this meeting where I will start to gather insight into your requirements and we will talk about what kind of ceremony you would like, any readings, poems, music or visual tributes or involvement from other family members of friends.

Ceremony Creation

I will email you the first draft of the ceremony content. This can be edited or amended as many times as you need.

Liaison

Depending on the type of ceremony you are having and the location, I will be liaising with them to ensure you get the ceremony you want and everything is in place.

Continued Support

Throughout the whole process, I will be keeping in contact with you to provide support and any updates on the arrangements.

Officiating The Ceremony

On the day itself, I will be there to make sure everything is in place and officiate the ceremony.

After The Ceremony

I will provide a digital and printed copy of the full ceremony, including any visual tributes. This can then be shared with family and friends and anyone who was unable to be there on the day.

Additional Extras

More Alternative / Bespoke Ceremonies

If you require a more alternative, bespoke ceremony, this could incur more costs. We will only know this when we start planning.

Rest assured I am completely transparent about my charges.

Mileage outside Pembrokeshire

I offer my services predominately in Pembrokeshire, but also cover Carmarthenshire and Ceredigion and am happy to travel further afield.

I do charge 45p per mile for travel outside of Pembrokeshire.

Overnight stays if required

Occasionally it is necessary to stay overnight depending on the location and what we have planned. This would incur additional costs.

Travel & costs if overseas

These additional costs would be discussed and agreed.

Payment Details

Once we have had our initial meeting,
a deposit of £75
needs to be paid to secure my services and protect the date of your ceremony.

One week before the day,
the remaining balance would need to be paid.
